ORDER GRANTING JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO COMPLETE FACT DISCOVERY

On September 6, 2022, Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") Complaint Counsel and HomeAdvisor, Inc. ("HomeAdvisor") filed a Joint Motion to Extend the Time to Complete Fact Discovery ("Joint Motion"). The parties jointly request a two-week extension to the September 6, 2022 deadline to complete fact discovery, "solely for purposes of completing the deposition of HomeAdvisor." Joint Motion at 2.

Pursuant to Rule 3.21(c)(2), the Administrative Law Judge may grant a motion to extend any deadline or time specified in the Scheduling Order, other than the date of the evidentiary hearing, upon a showing of good cause. 16 C.F.R. § 3.21(c)(2). In determining whether to grant the motion, the Administrative Law Judge shall consider, inter alia, any extensions already granted, and the need to conclude the evidentiary hearing and render an initial decision in a timely manner. Id. Based on the representations in the Joint Motion, the parties have demonstrated good cause for the requested extension. Moreover, this is the parties' first request to extend a Scheduling Order deadline, and the requested extension will not adversely impact the ability to conclude the evidentiary hearing or to render an initial decision in a timely manner.

Accordingly, the Joint Motion is GRANTED, and it is hereby ORDERED that the close of fact discovery is extended to September 20, 2022, solely for the purposes of allowing the completion of the deposition of HomeAdvisor.

ORDERED:

D. Michael Chappell
Chief Administrative Law Judge
