DOCKET NO. 9330

PARTIES' STIPULATIONS REGARDING AUTHENTICITY AND ADMISSIBILITY

Pursuant to the Court's Revised Scheduling Order, the parties stipulate to the following:

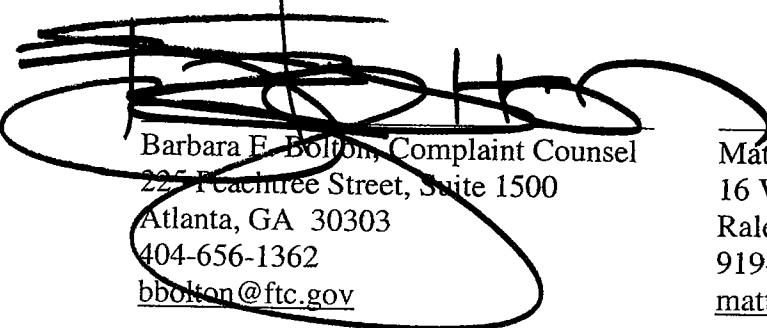

1. Each of the exhibits identified on Complaint Counsel's and Respondents' Exhibit Lists are, in fact, true and accurate copies of the originals, and free from forgery or counterfeiting. The parties agree that by making this stipulation, they do not waive their rights to object to each of the exhibits on other grounds.
2. The admission into evidence of Joint Exhibit 1 (hereinafter "JX _"), the expert report of Dr. Omer Kucuk. The admission into evidence of the expert report of Dr. Omer Kucuk is not objected to by Respondents. The parties stipulate that this expert report can be used in lieu of live testimony at a hearing.
3. The admission into evidence of JX 2, the Declaration of Diana Finegold, Federal Trade Commission investigator, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746. The admission into evidence of the Declaration of Diana Finegold is not objected to by Respondents. The parties stipulate that this declaration can be used in lieu of live testimony at a hearing.
4. The admission into evidence of JX 3, the Declaration of Lynne Colbert, Federal Trade Commission investigator, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746. The admission into evidence of the Declaration of Lynne Colbert is not objected to by Respondents. The parties stipulate that this declaration can be used in lieu of live testimony at a hearing.
5. The admission into evidence of JX 4, the deposition transcript of Pablo Velasco and Exhibits. The admission into evidence of the deposition transcript of Pablo Velasco and Exhibits is not objected to by Complaint Counsel. The parties stipulate that the deposition transcript of Pablo Velasco can be used in lieu of live testimony at a hearing.
6. The admission into evidence of JX 5, the documents produced in response to Respondent Counsel's Subpoena Duces Tecum served on Tierra.net (d/b/a DomainDiscover) including the Subpoena Duces Tecum. The admission into evidence of the documents produced are not objected to by Complaint Counsel.

7. The admission into evidence of JX 6, the typewritten statement prepared by Pablo Velasco dated February 5, 2009. The admission into evidence of the typewritten statement prepared by Pablo Velasco is not objected to by Complaint Counsel. The parties stipulate that the statement of Pablo Velasco can be used in lieu of live testimony at a hearing.

Dated: June 19, 2009.
