Craig Payton, and Zoltan Klivinyi pursuant to Section 13(b) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (FTC Act), 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), alleging deceptive acts or practices and false advertisements in violation of Sections 5(a) and 12 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a) and 52.

The Commission and Defendant Deborah B. Vickery (Defendant) have stipulated to entry of the following Settlement Agreement and Final Order in settlement of the Commission's allegations against Defendant.

The Court, having been presented with this Settlement Agreement and Final Order (Order), finds as follows:

FINDINGS

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case and jurisdiction over Defendant. Venue in the District of New Jersey is proper.
2. The acts and practices of Defendant are in or affecting commerce, as defined in Section 4 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.

3. The Complaint states a claim upon which relief can be granted under Sections 5(a) and 12 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a) and 52, and the Commission has the authority to seek the relief it has requested.

4. Defendant waives all rights to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order. Defendant also waives any claim that she may have held under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, concerning the prosecution of this action to the date of this Order.

5. This Order reflects the negotiated agreement of the Commission and Defendant, and Defendant has entered into this Order freely and without coercion.

6. The Commission and Defendant stipulate and agree to entry of this Order under Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), without trial or final adjudication of any issue of fact or law. By entering into this stipulation, Defendant does not admit or deny any of the allegations set forth in the Complaint, other than jurisdictional facts.

7. This action and the relief awarded herein are in addition to, and not in lieu of, other remedies as may be provided by law.

8. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d), the provisions of this Order are binding upon Defendant, and her officers, agents, servants, representatives, employees, and all other persons or entities in active concert or participation with her, who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise.

9. Nothing in this Order obviates the obligation of Defendant to comply with Sections 5 and 12 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45 and 52.

10. The Commission's action against Defendant is an exercise of the Commission's police or regulatory power as a governmental unit.

12. Each party shall bear its own costs and attorneys' fees.

13. Entry of this Order is in the public interest.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant, directly or through any corporation, partnership, subsidiary, division, trade name, or other device, and her officers, agents, servants, representatives, employees, and all persons or entities in active concert or participation with her who receive actual notice of this Order, by personal service or otherwise, in connection with the manufacturing, labeling, advertising, promotion, offering for sale, sale, or distribution of any Covered Product, in or affecting commerce, are hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from misrepresenting, in any manner, expressly or by implication, including through the use of any product name or endorsement, the existence, contents,

A. Defendant shall pay to the Commission the sum of four million dollars ($4,000,000.00) as equitable monetary relief, which payment shall be suspended subject to the provisions of Section VI.

B. Defendant relinquishes all dominion, control and title to the funds paid, to the fullest extent permitted by law. Defendant shall make no claim to or demand return of the funds, directly or indirectly, through counsel or otherwise.

C. Defendant agrees that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true without further proof in any bankruptcy case or subsequent civil litigation pursued by the Commission to enforce its rights to any payment pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case. Defendant further stipulates and agrees that the facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action pursuant to, and that this Order shall have collateral estoppel effect for purposes of, Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S. C. § 523(a)(2)(A).

D. VI.

RIGHT TO REOPEN

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. The Commission's agreement to this Order is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of the certified financial statement and supporting documents submitted to the Commission by the Defendant signed and dated June 10, 2009. Defendant stipulates that all of the materials she submitted are truthful, accurate, and complete. These documents contain material information upon which the Commission relied in negotiating and agreeing to the terms of this Order.

B. If, upon motion by the Commission, a Court determines that Defendant made a material misrepresentation or omitted material information concerning her financial condition, then the Court shall lift the suspension described in Section V and order that Defendant pay the Commission the sum of four million dollars ($4,000,000.00) as equitable monetary relief, which amount shall become immediately due and payable by Defendant, and interest computed at the rate prescribed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, shall immediately begin to accrue on the unpaid balance, provided, however, that in all other respects this Order shall remain in full force and effect unless otherwise ordered by the Court; and provided, further, that proceedings instituted under this provision would be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies as may be provided by law, including but not limited to contempt proceedings, or any other proceedings that the Commission may initiate to enforce this Order.

C. All funds paid to the Commission pursuant to this Order shall be deposited into an account administered by the Commission or its agents to be used for equitable relief, including, but not limited to, consumer redress, and any attendant expenses for the administration of such equitable relief. In the event that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after the redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendant's practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited in the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Defendant shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Section. Defendant shall have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the Commission. No portion of any payment ordered herein shall be deemed a payment of any fine, penalty, or punitive assessment.

VII.

R. Civ. P. 26(c);

B. In addition, the Commission is authorized to use all other lawful means, including, but not limited to:

The person interviewed may have counsel present.

Provided, however, that nothing in this Order shall limit the Commission's lawful use of compulsory process, pursuant to Sections 9 and 20 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 49, 57b-1, to obtain any documentary material, tangible things, testimony, or information relevant to unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce (within the meaning of 15 U.S.C. § 45(a)(1)).
