DECISION AND ORDER

DOCKET NO. C-4680

DECISION

The Federal Trade Commission (“Commission”) initiated an investigation of certain acts and practices of the Respondents named in the caption. The Commission’s Bureau of Consumer Protection (“BCP”) prepared and furnished to Respondents a draft Complaint. BCP proposed to present the draft Complaint to the Commission for its consideration. If issued by the Commission, the draft Complaint would charge the Respondents with violations of the Consumer Review Fairness Act of 2016.

Respondents and BCP thereafter executed an Agreement Containing Consent Order (“Consent Agreement”). The Consent Agreement includes: 1) statements by Respondents that they neither admit nor deny any of the allegations in the Complaint, except as specifically stated in this Decision and Order, and that only for purposes of this action, they admit the facts necessary to establish jurisdiction; and 2) waivers and other provisions as required by the Commission’s Rules.

The Commission considered the matter and determined that it had reason to believe that Respondents have violated the Consumer Review Fairness Act, and that a Complaint should issue stating its charges in that respect. The Commission accepted the executed Consent Agreement and placed it on the public record for a period of 30 days for the receipt and consideration of public comments. Now, in further conformity with the procedure prescribed in

Rule 2.34, the Commission issues its Complaint, makes the following Findings, and issues the following Order:

FINDINGS

1. The Respondents are:
  - a. A Waldron HVAC, LLC, also d/b/a Waldron Electric Heating and Cooling, LLC, a Pennsylvania limited liability company with its principal office or place of business at 500 Regis Avenue #18415, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15236.
  - b. Thomas J. Waldron, an owner and manager of A Waldron HVAC, LLC. Individually or in concert with others, he formulates, directs, or controls the policies, acts, or practices of A Waldron HVAC, LLC. His principal office or place of business is the same as that of A Waldron HVAC, LLC.
2. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding and over the Respondents, and the proceeding is in the public interest.

Dear <Name of customer>:

Our records show that you contracted with our company for electrical, heating, or cooling services. I am writing to tell you that the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), the nation's consumer protection agency, has alleged that we used contract provisions that violate the Consumer Review Fairness Act (CRFA). The CRFA protects your ability to share your honest opinions about a business's products, services, or conduct in any forum, including social media. According to the FTC, we used provisions in our form contracts that unlawfully restrict our customers (including you) from sharing truthful information and opinions about their experiences with us.

We are contacting our customers to tell you that these contract provisions are void and we cannot enforce the provisions against you. You can publish your honest review even if you say something negative about us or our services.
