UNITED STATES OF AMERICA BEFORE THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

COMMISSIONERS:

Lina M. Khan, Chair Noah Joshua Phillips Rebecca Kelly Slaughter Christine S. Wilson

In the Matter of

DUN & BRADSTREET, INC., a corporation, d/b/a D&B.

DOCKET NO. C-4761

COMPLAINT

The Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., a corporation, has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and it appearing to the Commission that this proceeding is in the public interest, alleges:

1. Respondent Dun & Bradstreet, Inc. ("D&B"), also doing business as D&B, is a Delaware corporation with its principal office or place of business at 101 John F. Kennedy Parkway, Short Hills, NJ 07078. D&B is a wholly owned subsidiary of The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation.

2. From at least May 2015, Respondent has advertised, marketed, offered for sale, sold, and distributed products to small and mid-sized business consumers, including products Respondent claims will help a business monitor, manage, and build its business credit report. Respondent claims that the products offer a business an easy way to provide D&B with positive payment history, otherwise unreported by D&B, to improve the business's credit report. In fact, Respondent rejects a majority of the submissions, and thousands of businesses that have paid for these products cannot get even a single payment experience added to their credit reports.

3. The acts and practices of Respondent alleged in this complaint have been in or affecting commerce, as "commerce" is defined in Section 4 of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

Respondent's Business Practices

Overview

4. Respondent is involved in the commercial credit reporting business. Respondent maintains files containing information on over 300 million businesses and other entities, including nonprofits, cities, counties, municipalities, and other governmental entities (hereinafter, collectively referred to as "affected businesses") worldwide.

5. Among other things, Respondent creates and maintains commercial credit reports on affected businesses. These commercial credit reports contain a variety of information about affected businesses, as well as proprietary scores and ratings that Respondent generates and assigns.

6. Respondent makes its credit reports available to entities, including an affected business's potential suppliers and vendors, for a fee. Respondent has represented that a strong credit report may improve an affected business's chances to qualify for loans, attract new customers, increase cash flow, lower interest rates, and negotiate better payment terms.

7. In many instances, Respondent's credit reports on small and mid-sized affected businesses reflect incorrect or incomplete information, including incorrect information about the affected business itself or incomplete information about an affected business's payment experiences with other entities and its overall financial health.

8. Unlike an individual credit report, a D&B credit report does not identify by name the entities that have provided payment information about an affected business. Nor does a D&B credit report list the specific amount and specific date of any transaction reflected in the report. Moreover, even when an affected business questions the accuracy of the payment information appearing on the report, Respondent will not tell affected businesses the specific sources of Respondent's information about the affected business except when the source permits such disclosure.

9. If Respondent's credit report reflects incorrect or incomplete information about an affected business, the affected business's only recourse is to deal directly with Respondent to seek to correct or supplement the report.

10. If an affected business contacts Respondent to dispute a payment experience appearing on its credit report, Respondent's policy is to contact the entity that reported the information to Respondent and ask it to recheck the payment experience. Respondent provides no new or additional information to the source about the reported payment experience. Thus, in some instances, affected businesses cannot obtain changes through this process, or on their own by reaching out directly to the reporting entity.

11. Affected businesses have suffered negative consequences as a result of incomplete and inaccurate information appearing on their credit report, including denial of credit, less favorable contract terms, and loss of contracts with other businesses.

12. Respondent also offers various paid products to small and mid-sized affected businesses, purportedly to help them monitor, manage, and improve their own credit reports. Respondent uses the term "credit-on-self" to describe these products, as they purportedly allow an affected business to monitor, and have information added to, its own credit report, including information that would correct or supplement the information reported by Respondent.

13. Respondent's "credit-on-self" products have included products called CreditBuilder, CreditBuilder Plus, and CreditBuilder Premium and related products or services, including Credit Essentials, a product that includes CreditBuilder features. Collectively, these "credit-on-self" products are referred to herein as "CreditBuilder Line products."

14. Respondent has generated sales of CreditBuilder Line products through multiple deceptive acts and practices.

15. For affected businesses dissatisfied with the accuracy or completeness of the information Respondent reports about them, Respondent has routinely deceptively claimed that purchasing a CreditBuilder Line product is the path by which an affected business can add payment history and improve its scores and ratings.

16. Respondent has routinely deceptively claimed that if an affected business would simply purchase a CreditBuilder Line product and provide information to Respondent, Respondent would verify that information and add it to the credit report. For example, in pitching CreditBuilder Line products, Respondent's telemarketers have made specific deceptive claims including, "we will contact those companies that you add … [and] verify that payment history going back a full 12 months," and "[i]t's a really easy process[,] I just need a little bit of information from you and we basically take over the rest from there."

17. In addition, in numerous instances Respondent's telemarketers have deceptively pitched CreditBuilder Line products to new businesses, and to businesses unfamiliar with Respondent, through misleading claims that the affected business needs to purchase a CreditBuilder Line product in order to "complete" its credit file.

18. Respondent has also employed deceptive practices to enable it to collect payments from CreditBuilder Line product customers for products different from the ones to which they agreed to subscribe. Moreover, Respondent has deceptively collected credit card information from CreditBuilder Line product customers without adequately disclosing material aspects of its charging practices, including, in many instances, failing to disclose that at the end of the product's subscription term, Respondent will automatically charge the customer's credit card again for a subscription to a CreditBuilder Line product.

Background on Respondent's Credit Reporting Business

19. To establish a credit file on an affected business, Respondent gathers information from sources including public records, payment information supplied to D&B by an affected business's vendors and creditors, and information supplied to D&B by the affected business itself.

20. At the time it establishes an affected business's credit file, Respondent also assigns the affected business a DUNS number, a unique, nine-digit identifier of a single affected business that ties directly to an affected business's D&B credit file, and which D&B is solely responsible for issuing. In numerous instances, Respondent opens a credit file and assigns a DUNS number on its own initiative. In other instances, Respondent does so after an affected business contacts D&B to request a DUNS number. The request for a DUNS number and the creation of a credit file and report are free.

21. Affected businesses often need a DUNS number, because certain entities require an affected business to obtain a DUNS number before they will work with the affected business, and the federal government has required an affected business to have a DUNS number in order to apply for certain federal government contracts or grants.

22. Although an affected business should only receive a single DUNS number, in some instances, Respondent has assigned a single affected business multiple DUNS numbers attached to multiple credit files, and has included different information about the affected business in each credit file.

23. An affected business's D&B credit report includes basic information about the affected business, such as its name, address, and principals, and public information on any judgments or liens. In numerous instances, Respondent reports incorrect or incomplete basic and public information about an affected business.

24. An affected business's D&B credit report may include information relating to how the affected business pays its bills, such as whether the affected business pays its bills on time, is late, or is delinquent. Respondent bases this element of its business credit reports on commercial payment information that it receives from other entities.

25. Respondent sometimes refers to the sources that supply commercial payment information to D&B as "Trade References," and other times uses the term "Trade References" to refer to the payment information these entities provide to D&B.

26. According to Respondent, only a small number of entities have agreements with D&B to automatically report commercial payment information or "payment experiences" to D&B on a regular basis about affected businesses with which the entities do business. Respondent sometimes refers to these entities as "Trade Tape Providers." The Trade Tape Providers have varied over time.

27. Of the tens of millions of businesses in the United States, at any given time only approximately 3,000-5,000 companies are Trade Tape Providers.

28. In numerous instances, an affected business's payment experiences will go unreported by D&B. First, an affected business's suppliers, vendors, and other entities the affected business works with often are not Trade Tape Providers and therefore do not automatically report an affected business's payment experiences to D&B. Second, even if the affected business has a relationship with a Trade Tape Provider, in some instances, D&B fails to report the payment experiences because the Trade Tape Provider may not have provided the particular affected business's payment experiences to D&B, and/or D&B fails to match the reported payment experiences to the affected business.

29. Even when Respondent reports payment experiences, in some instances, such payment experiences may be incorrect. Because Respondent reports what Trade Tape Providers send to Respondent, any errors in the Trade Tape Provider's data are inherently reflected in what Respondent reports on an affected business's credit report.

30. If Respondent contacts a Trade Tape Provider about a dispute from an affected business, and receives no response at all from the Trade Tape Provider, Respondent's practice is to delete the disputed payment experience. However, if the same Trade Tape Provider later provides another file to Respondent that contains the same disputed payment experience, Respondent will again report it. Thus, an affected business may believe that it has effectively disputed erroneous payment experience data only to later see it reappear.

31. In addition to reporting on an affected business's payment experiences, Respondent assigns an affected business various scores and ratings, which appear on the affected business's credit report. These scores and ratings purportedly reflect the creditworthiness of the affected business, including predicting the likelihood that the affected business will experience financial distress or cease operations over the next year.

32. Respondent calculates many of the scores and ratings by using payment experience information that it receives from Trade References regarding how an affected business pays its bills. As Respondent often receives limited or no payment experience information about an affected business, and as data provided from Trade Tape Providers may contain errors, in many instances the scores and ratings that Respondent assigns, particularly as to small and mid-sized businesses, may not accurately reflect how the affected business has performed in the past and/or how it will perform in the future.

33. The manner in which Respondent gathers and maintains data can result in it reporting errors and incomplete information. Even in the course of producing CreditBuilder Line product information to the Commission during the investigation of this matter, Respondent produced data containing errors such as incorrect basic information about Respondent's customers.

Background on Respondent's CreditBuilder Line Products

34. Respondent has represented that CreditBuilder Line products allow an affected business to submit the names of the entities it does business with—its own Trade Reference information—to Respondent so that Respondent can add the affected business's payment experiences with these entities to the affected business's credit report.

35. The number of Trade References that Respondent permits a subscriber to add to its credit report differs depending on the CreditBuilder Line product. The basic CreditBuilder product allows subscribers to add up to four Trade References per year, CreditBuilder Plus allows subscribers to add a maximum of 12 Trade References per year, and CreditBuilder Premium allows subscribers to add an unlimited number of Trade References.

36. Most of Respondent's CreditBuilder Line products are sold as annual subscriptions and are generally non-refundable during their term. Respondent typically collects subscribers' credit card information and collects full payment for the term up-front. Respondent then automatically renews and charges for CreditBuilder Line products at the beginning of each succeeding term unless the subscriber notifies D&B before the end of the term that it does not want to renew.

37. For annual subscriptions, the current list price for the basic CreditBuilder product is $899, for CreditBuilder Plus it is $1,499, and for CreditBuilder Premium it is $1,999. Respondent sometimes charges an additional $149 one-time activation fee at the time of purchase.

38. In approximately August 2017, Respondent introduced Credit Essentials for $1,599 per year. Credit Essentials included access to two products, the basic CreditBuilder product and Respondent's Credit Reporter product, which, among other things, allowed a subscriber to monitor the reports of five other companies.

39. In approximately April 2018, Respondent stopped selling the Credit Essentials product described in Paragraph 38 above and began offering a new Credit Essentials product (sometimes referred to as Credit Essentials Plus) for $2,499 per year. This new Credit Essentials product combined features of CreditBuilder Premium and Credit Reporter.

How Respondent Introduces CreditBuilder Line Products to Potential Subscribers

40. In numerous instances, after learning about what they believe to be incomplete or inaccurate payment-related information and/or inaccurate scores and ratings appearing on their D&B credit reports, affected businesses have contacted Respondent to complain. Respondent has routinely offered these affected businesses a CreditBuilder Line product as a way to improve their reports. Respondent's telemarketers have routinely told such affected businesses that purchasing a CreditBuilder Line product is the only way to improve their D&B credit reports.

41. Respondent has also offered CreditBuilder Line products when an affected business calls after receiving one or more of Respondent's "business credit notification" mailers. These mailers represent, for instance, that the affected business's scores have declined and urge the affected business to call a D&B "Credit Advisor" or "Account Manager" to learn how to "safeguard" the affected business.

42. For example, one mailer claims that a D&B customer has purchased the affected business's file, and the file contains the affected business's "Delinquency Predictor Score, which has declined." It warns, "a low Delinquency Predictor Score may mean that you have an increased risk of delinquent payments." The mailer advises:

Many companies, banks, government agencies—even current and potential business partners—may be using information in your D&B credit file to help make decisions about doing business with you. Having a complete and well-managed D&B credit profile can help you:

- · Show your company's financial health in the best possible light
- · Negotiate better payment terms with suppliers
- · Qualify for better insurance premium and mortgage rates

Affected businesses are urged to call Respondent to learn more about the inquiry and how D&B may help the affected business impact its score.

43. Respondent also has marketed CreditBuilder Line products directly to affected businesses through outbound calls and emails. In many instances, Respondent initiates these marketing calls and emails after an affected business has submitted a request for a free DUNS number or free credit report, or after Respondent has sent the affected business one or more business credit notification mailers as described in Paragraphs 41 and 42, above.

Respondent's Telemarketers Tell Potential Subscribers that it Is Easy to Add Trade References and that Respondent Will Actively Help Them

44. Respondent's telemarketers have routinely begun their sales pitch for CreditBuilder Line products by representing that the affected business's credit report contains limited and/or negative payment information, that the vast majority of companies do not report payment experiences automatically to D&B, and that therefore, it is up to the affected business to manage, report, and update its own D&B credit report.

45. Respondent has claimed that CreditBuilder Line products allow an affected business to manually submit or self-report to D&B its Trade References, and/or add the names of its vendors and suppliers to increase the positive payment experiences in its credit report. Respondent has claimed that once an affected business submits its Trade References using the CreditBuilder Line product, Respondent contacts the Trade References to verify the payment history and then adds the payment information to the affected business's credit report.

46. Respondent has claimed that CreditBuilder Line products will improve, build, and/or establish an affected business's credit report, and move its credit scores and ratings in a positive direction.

47. Respondent has represented that it will actively assist the affected business in getting its payment experiences added to the credit report.

- 48. Specifically, Respondent's telemarketers have represented:
  - [T]here's only a small percentage of companies that actually automatically record [sic] payment history to Dun & Bradstreet.... So when you're in a niche type of line of business, then it's even harder to get payment history on here.... If you want to build the report up, you can actually self-report some of the expenses that aren't being captured on here where you provide ... the contact information for the vendor. We'll go to that vendor to get the payment history to verify and add to your credit report.

vendors that you had mentioned that you have...we're going to need to physically submit and add them on to your credit report. [Ex. F, Sales Call Tr. 13:12-24]

• [Y]ou simply give us the names and the contact detail of the company that you pay bills to. Even if you're paying up-front using your own debit card right now, paying in cash, it doesn't matter. However you're paying, you log in here, you give us the names and contact detail, we will contact those companies that you add. We verify that payment history going back a full 12 months and we manually (recording malfunction) that payment history on the report....Now, this DUNS number is free. The credit report for the business is free. Again, there's only a cost involved in you submitting the bills because, again, we're not a reporting company, we don't know who you're paying. You're essentially hiring us to work for you.

[Ex. G, Sales Call Tr. 17:4-12, 19:13-18]

• Just email me the contact information of who you're going to be making payments to and then our trade department is going to do the rest of the work from there by calling those companies to verify how much you spent with them, the percentage that was paid on time, and if you have any terms with them. And then once we verify that information, then that gets added into the report. It's a really easy process. I just need a little bit of information from you and we basically take over the rest from there. [Ex. H, Sales Call Tr. 7:18-8:2]

Subscribers Find that it Is Not Easy to Get Trade References Accepted and Payments Added, and Respondent Does Not Actively Help Them

51. Although Respondent has represented to affected businesses that it is easy to have their Trade References accepted and unreported payment experiences added to their credit reports, in numerous instances and for various reasons, Respondent has rejected Trade References added by CreditBuilder Line customers and declined to include the information on their credit report.

52. For example, if a CreditBuilder Line customer submits a company that is a Trade Tape Provider, Respondent rejects that submission regardless of whether the entity has actually reported on the customer; if the Trade Tape Provider has not reported on the customer, Respondent will not bother to contact the entity to let it know it should be doing so.

53. Respondent also rejects submissions of entities that appear on its no-contact list. In numerous instances, these companies are precisely the types of large and well-known vendors and suppliers that an affected business may seek to have added to its credit report. While the companies on the no-contact list have varied over time, examples have included prominent vendors such as Fortune 500 computer companies, internet and telecommunications companies, a very large and well-known shipping company, a supplier of paints, coatings and related products, a hardware company, and a construction rental company.

Respondent Tells Potential Subscribers they Need a CreditBuilder Line Product to Complete their Report, for Scores and Ratings, or for their Background Check

59. In addition to making the Trade Reference claims described above, Respondent has represented to potential subscribers, typically those that have applied for a free DUNS number and/or are newer businesses, that the D&B credit file will not be useful without a CreditBuilder Line product. In numerous instances, Respondent has claimed that a CreditBuilder Line product is needed to complete the credit file and enable the potential subscriber to become eligible for D&B scores and ratings. Respondent has also represented that a CreditBuilder Line product is necessary for D&B to conduct a background check that is required to establish the affected business's file.

60. For instance, in the course of making CreditBuilder Line product sales pitches, Respondent's telemarketers have represented:

- [T]he application you submitted, typically, it would take 30 business days. But, again, it does leave your file incomplete. So you wouldn't even yet qualify for the full set of ratings. So we will initiate a background check so that way you have that completed report. That will only take ... three to five business days. And then once that is completed, we typically start your scores and ratings in the mid-range. That way, you're not showing poor ratings right from the beginning.... In order for us to initiate the background check and to get the links and logins so that way you'll have the full access to self-report. That would be through a Credit Builder basic platform. We just roll this out to newer companies or companies who don't have the DUNS number just yet. [Ex H, Sales Call Tr. 10:10-20, 11:5-10]
- [T]he application that you submitted, typically it would take up to 30 business days to receive, but what happens is it does leave the file incomplete. So you wouldn't yet qualify for all seven scores and ratings that are attached to the DUNS number. So since you're using this for commercial purposes -- and that's one reason, we want to make sure at the very minimum you do have that completed report. So we will initiate a background check. We don't need any legal documents from you. We'll get all of that squared away over here. And then within three to five business days, once you confirm the company was registered and if there's been any lawsuits or bankruptcies, we complete your file for the lifetime of the company.... In order for us to initiate the background check and to get the links and logins so that way you have the full access to the report, that is through a Credit Builder Basic platform. We just roll this out to newer companies. [Ex I, Sales Call Tr. 11:19-12:9, 14:25-15:4]
- So you actually already have the DUNS number. It's just that it's attached to an incomplete credit file.... So what we need to do is get you set up so that you get a completed report. That's just going to mean that we confirm operations, make sure there are no lawsuits, liens, judgments ... bankruptcies.... and then we'll set you up so that you can add in the names of those suppliers so we can help you start to build the credit.... So what we'll do is we'll set you up on the entry-level service. It's only $1,499, and it's going to complete your report for the life of the business." [Ex J, Sales Call Tr. 15:13-16:5, 17:12-15]

61. In fact, an affected business does not need to purchase a CreditBuilder Line product in order for Respondent to conduct a background check or to verify background information for a credit file.

62. A CreditBuilder Line product also is not needed to "complete" an affected business's credit file. In the context of determining whether a Trade Reference is qualified, Respondent has represented that a "complete" file means it includes all basic information, such as name and contact information. However, affected businesses can use one of Respondent's free online platforms to add or update their basic information and submit financial statements. Affected businesses also can, and often do, provide much of this information to Respondent over the telephone.

63. Moreover, a CreditBuilder Line product cannot "complete" a business's credit file in terms of ensuring that the file contains all relevant credit information, since, in numerous instances, payment experience information will still be missing or incomplete. For instance, as described above, Respondent often does not add payment experience information to an affected business's credit file automatically or manually.

64. An affected business with a DUNS number and credit file is eligible to receive its D&B scores and ratings without a CreditBuilder Line product. At the same time, a CreditBuilder Line product cannot ensure that an affected business will in fact receive them all. For instance, Respondent requires an affected business to have three payment experiences for a score that Respondent refers to as a PAYDEX score. In numerous instances, an affected business that purchases a CreditBuilder Line product will not be able to add sufficient payment experiences to generate this score.

65. Respondent has used its claim that an affected business's credit file is or will be incomplete in a marketing campaign to "drive customer traffic" and "maximize" its CreditBuilder Line sales opportunities. Respondent has referred to this marketing campaign as its "incomplete file campaign."

66. Information produced by Respondent to the Commission during the investigation of this matter shows that thousands of CreditBuilder Line customers have never submitted even a single Trade Reference and never once logged in to their CreditBuilder Line accounts on D&B's online portal. This evidence supports a strong inference that Respondent's deceptive claims that an affected business must purchase a CreditBuilder Line product to avoid having an "incomplete" D&B file have been material and effective.

Respondent's Deceptive Product Renewal Practices

67. Many times, Respondent's telemarketers have failed to tell affected businesses that, at the end of the subscription term, D&B will automatically charge the affected business again for a subscription to the CreditBuilder Line product being purchased, and that the charge will be in the amount of the product's "then current price."

68. In the instances when Respondent's telemarketers have made this auto-renewal disclosure, or something similar, Respondent's telemarketers have typically buried it in a statement after the affected business has already agreed to the purchase and provided its payment information. At the time of the initial purchase, Respondent's telemarketers have not informed subscribers that D&B may later substitute a different CreditBuilder Line product for the one that the customer is purchasing.

69. In numerous instances, Respondent has automatically renewed an affected business's CreditBuilder Line subscription at a materially higher price than the price the subscriber agreed to at the time of the purchase, without notice or adequate notice to the customer in advance of the price increase. Respondent has done this by routinely increasing the list price of CreditBuilder Line products and charging the higher price at the time of the automatic renewal. Respondent has also done this by eliminating certain CreditBuilder Line products and moving existing subscribers into different and higher-priced CreditBuilder Line products, a practice Respondent has referred to as "product migration."

70. As an example of an automatic renewal at a materially higher price, in November 2015, Respondent increased the annual list price of CreditBuilder Plus from $1,099 to $1,399, and increased it again in July 2016 to $1,599. By 2016, subscribers that purchased CreditBuilder Plus at $1,099 were automatically renewed at the "then current price" of $1,599. Despite the 45% price increase, there was no change to the CreditBuilder Plus features. In numerous instances, Respondent did not provide affected businesses with notice or adequate notice of the price increase before automatically renewing the product.

71. Two examples of Respondent's product migration and price increase practices involve the basic CreditBuilder product and a product called "Credit Monitor." In Spring 2015, Respondent temporarily stopped making the basic CreditBuilder product available. At that time, the basic CreditBuilder product had a list price of $949. At the time of automatic renewal, instead of renewing the product to which the affected business had subscribed, Respondent moved numerous basic subscribers into a higher-priced CreditBuilder Plus product that, by July 2016, cost $1,599 per year, a price increase of more than 65% for a product the subscriber did not order. Also in July 2016, Respondent stopped offering its $499 Credit Monitor product and moved those subscribers to Respondent's $1,599 CreditBuilder Plus at the time of their automatic renewal. In numerous instances, Respondent did not provide affected businesses with notice or adequate notice before the product migration.

72. Although Respondent has used its "then current price" disclosure to justify charging an affected business more for a product than it agreed to pay for its initial subscription, when Respondent has reduced the list price of a CreditBuilder Line product, Respondent has continued automatically renewing existing CreditBuilder Line customers at the former higher list price rather than the new, reduced, "then current price."

73. Nor has Respondent applied its product migration practices and automatic renewal "at the then current price" in a way that would restore subscribers' original purchases and reduce the amount Respondent charges. Not long after Respondent eliminated the basic CreditBuilder and Credit Monitor products in 2015 and 2016, respectively, it reintroduced both in early 2018. However, Respondent did not move any of the subscribers it had previously moved from these products to the materially higher-priced CreditBuilder Plus through product migration back to the lower-priced products they had originally agreed to purchase.

74. In addition to the automatic renewal and product migration practices described above, in numerous instances, Respondent has affirmatively misrepresented to affected businesses the CreditBuilder Line product that Respondent is attempting to renew, allowing Respondent to move subscribers from one CreditBuilder Line product to another product or into higher-priced products without notice to subscribers.

75. For instance, beginning in approximately August 2017, when Respondent attempted to auto-renew a CreditBuilder Plus subscription for a customer whose payment method on file was no longer valid, Respondent's telemarketers would call the subscriber to get updated payment information. In some of those instances, Respondent's telemarketers moved CreditBuilder Plus subscribers to Respondent's new, $1,599 Credit Essentials product by falsely representing to the CreditBuilder Plus subscribers that Respondent was calling to renew their current subscription, the subscriber needed to provide updated payment information for the renewal, and the CreditBuilder Plus product had been renamed Credit Essentials but was the same as the subscriber's current product.

76. Although Respondent represented to these CreditBuilder Plus subscribers that CreditBuilder Plus and Credit Essentials were the same product, they were not. For instance, among other material changes in features, Credit Essentials allowed subscribers to add only four Trade References per year, while CreditBuilder Plus allowed subscribers to add 12 Trade References per year.

77. As another example, in approximately April 2018, Respondent stopped offering the Credit Essentials product described in Paragraphs 75 and 76, above, and began offering a new $2,499 Credit Essentials product (sometimes referred to as Credit Essentials Plus), which allowed the subscriber to add an unlimited number of Trade References. If the affected business's payment method on file was not valid and did not allow for an automatic renewal of the $1,599 Credit Essentials product, Respondent called the subscriber and represented that the subscriber's service was set to renew and that Respondent needed to collect updated payment information. In fact, Respondent was not calling to renew the affected business's current $1,599 Credit Essentials product, but instead, to move the affected business into the different, higher-priced Credit Essentials Plus product.

78. Respondent has routinely moved affected businesses from one product to another, told affected businesses that they have one product when in fact they have a different product, and has sold additional related products and add-on products. As a result, affected businesses often experience confusion about what product or products they are paying for and what the current features of those products are.

Count I

False or Misleading Claims Regarding CreditBuilder Line Products: Trade References

79. In numerous instances in connection with the advertising, promotion, offering for sale of CreditBuilder Line products, Respondent has represented, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication, that:

- a. Using a CreditBuilder Line product allows an affected business to have its previously unreported commercial payment experiences added to the affected business's credit report.
- b. Respondent will actively assist CreditBuilder Line product subscribers in adding such unreported commercial payment experience information to the affected business's credit report.

80. In fact, in numerous instances in which Respondent has made the representations set forth in Paragraph 79, using a CreditBuilder Line product does not allow an affected business to have its previously unreported commercial payment experiences added to the affected business's credit report, and Respondent does not actively assist CreditBuilder Line product subscribers in adding unreported commercial payment experience information to the affected business's credit report. Therefore, the representations set forth in Paragraph 79 are false or misleading.

Count II

False or Misleading Claims Regarding CreditBuilder Line Products: Status of Report

81. In numerous instances, in connection with the advertising, promotion, offering for sale, or sale of its CreditBuilder Line products, Respondent has represented, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication, that CreditBuilder Line products are required for Respondent to conduct a background check on the affected business or will provide an affected business with a complete report including a full set of scores and ratings.

82. In fact, CreditBuilder Line products are not required for Respondent to conduct a background check on the affected business, and will not always provide an affected business with a complete report including a full set of scores and ratings. Therefore, the representations set forth in Paragraph 81 are false or misleading.

Count III False or Misleading Claims Regarding CreditBuilder Line Products: Collection and Renewal

83. In numerous instances in connection with collecting updated payment information for CreditBuilder Line products that are scheduled to renew, Respondent has represented, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication, that Respondent is collecting payment for and is renewing the product that the affected business purchased the prior term.

84. In fact, in numerous instances in which Respondent has made the representation set forth in Paragraph 83, Respondent is not collecting payment for and is not renewing the product that the affected business purchased the prior term. Therefore, the representation set forth in Paragraph 83 is false or misleading.

Count IV Failure to Disclose: Renewal Practices

85. In numerous instances in connection with the advertising, promotion, offering for sale, or sale of its CreditBuilder Line products, Respondent has represented that it collects customer credit card data for payment so that the customer may subscribe to a CreditBuilder Line product for a designated period (e.g., 12 months).

86. In fact, in numerous instances in which Respondent has made the representation set forth in Paragraph 85, Respondent has failed to disclose or disclose adequately, that:

- a. At the end of the designated period, and at the end of each succeeding designated period until cancelled, Respondent will automatically charge the customer's credit card again for a subscription to a CreditBuilder Line product.
- b. At Respondent's unilateral choice, the CreditBuilder Line product for which Respondent will charge the customer at the end of the designated period, or any succeeding designated period, may be materially different from the CreditBuilder Line product to which the customer originally subscribed.
- c. If the list price of the CreditBuilder Line product to which the customer is subscribing increases, Respondent will charge the customer the increased price, but if the list price of the CreditBuilder Line product to which the customer is subscribing is reduced, Respondent will not give the customer the benefit of the price reduction and will charge the customer at the higher previous price.
- d. If at any time Respondent unilaterally moves the customer into a different CreditBuilder Line product from the one to which the customer is subscribing, Respondent will not unilaterally move the customer back to the product to which the customer originally subscribed.

87. These facts would be material to affected businesses in their purchase decisions regarding CreditBuilder Line products.

88. Respondent's failure to disclose or disclose adequately the material information described in Paragraph 86, in light of the representation set forth in Paragraph 85, is a deceptive act or practice.

Count V Unfair Dispute Investigation and Resolution Practices

89. As described in Paragraphs 7-11, 22, 23, 29-33 and 40, in numerous instances, Respondent has reported incorrect information on affected businesses' D&B credit reports, yet has not provided affected businesses with a reasonable means to dispute such information.

90. This practice has caused or is likely to cause substantial injury to consumers that is not outweighed by countervailing benefits to consumers or competition and is not reasonably avoidable by consumers themselves. This practice is an unfair act or practice.

Violations of Section 5

91. The acts and practices of Respondent as alleged in this complaint constitute unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce in violation of Section 5(a) of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

THEREFORE, the Federal Trade Commission this 6th day of April, 2022, has issued this Complaint against Respondent.

By the Commission.

1	RACHEL: Okay. And what's going on? You said	1	STEVE: Okay.
2	that you went to a new laboratory? Like, what exactly is	2	RACHEL: Recently reported last month with a
3	it that your company does?	3	high credit of $1,000 and now owes $1,000, low by up to
4	STEVE: Drug testing.	4	30 days. And a miscellaneous business service industry
5	RACHEL: Oh, okay, okay. So you're using a new	5	for $250. And then something pretty big that looks like
6	facility. Is this for expansion or	6	it went to some type of a collection service for $20,000.
7	STEVE: We wanted to use a new laboratory	7	It doesn't give an actual company name or industry.
8	because of some of the services they offer. Yeah,	8	The way that business credit works is the
9	they've got some you know, some advanced equipment and	9	industries get listed on the credit report initially.
10	stuff that does a better job. But they said our Dun	10	And if there's a slow payment, you can put it in for
11	Bradstreet is kind of a muck.	11	dispute with us and we'll go back to the company that
12	RACHEL: Yeah. So your scores and ratings are	12	reported it on your behalf to confirm the details of the
13	all currently in the high-risk range.	13	payment and then ask for a name release to come back to
14	STEVE: Okay.	14	you and say, well, it was ABC Company and have you check
15	RACHEL: And the scores and ratings are built	15	your record.
16	off of two different types of information. They're built	16	So the first thing that we want to do is put
17	off of basic demographic info like where you're located,	17	these payments in for dispute so that you can get an idea
18	what your line of business is, how long you've been in	18	of where it's coming from.
19	business, how large the company is, stuff like that. And	19	STEVE: Okay.
20	then financial information, which for your entity is	20	RACHEL: This one in particular is a pretty
21	going to be payment history. That's	21	hefty payment and it is listed as an unfavorable comment
22	STEVE: Right.	22 23	on your credit file, which probably doesn't mean anything
23 24	RACHEL: reported to us from your vendors.	23	to you because you don't quite know what that means. It basically just means that it was like a company that
24 25	Because of the niche type of line of business that you're in, you don't have a lot of vendors that you pay who	24	some type of payment or line of credit or expense was
23	in, you don't have a lot of vendors that you pay who	23	some type of payment of fine of creat of expense was
	6		8
1	actually report payment history to us. So the first	1	sent to a third party collection.
2	issue is there's not really a lot of information in here	2	STEVE: And I don't know who that would have
3	to build strong reporting	3	been.
4	STEVE: That's what they said. There's just no	4	RACHEL: Yeah. I mean, you're not going to
5	information in there.	5	have a ton of expenses as you know, with your line of
6	RACHEL: Yeah.	6	business. So I'm not quite sure where these payments are
7	STEVE: They said it was like it was like	7	coming from.
8	almost we don't exist.	8	STEVE: We have like Office Depot and our
9	RACHEL: Yeah. Can you give me an idea of what	9	phone, our rent, but that's about it, you know, other
10	like, what your annual sales are as an organization?	10	than lab fees.
11	STEVE: $104,000 last year.	11	RACHEL: Yeah. So what I'm going to recommend
12	RACHEL: Okay. All right. So right now	12	you do is work with our customer support department.
13	there's only a couple of payments on file. Of the	13	They can put these payments in inaudible) to help you
14	payments that are currently on file, there have recently	14	get to the bottom of where they're coming from, and that
15	been a few that have been reported as paid slow. And	15	will help clean up your scores.
16	they actually tank your scores quite a bit.	16 17	STEVE: Okay.
17 18	STEVE: Okay. RACHEL: Okay? So you've got	17	RACHEL: Okay? STEVE: So it's just there's there's not
18	STEVE: Two of those?	18	much there really to work with.
20	RACHEL: Two two main components that you	20	RACHEL: Yeah. I mean, most companies, there's
20	need to work on here.	20	only a small percentage of companies that actually
22	STEVE: Okay.	21	automatically record payment history to Dun Bradstreet.
23	RACHEL: The industries that are listed	23	STEVE: I see.
24	associated with these payments are short-term business	24	RACHEL: And it's something like less than 5
25	credits.	25	percent. So when you're in a niche type of line of

1	business, then it's even harder to get payment history on
2	here.
3	STEVE: So most of our most of our companies
2 3 4 5	that we deal with don't even report to y'all. So
5	RACHEL: Yeah.
6	STEVE: if we don't check up on it and then
7	update it, then it doesn't get done.
8	RACHEL: Any further than what it is now
9	because, I mean, there is $22,800 in here. So it's not
10	like there's zero dollars. It's just it's not a lot.
11	You can use
12	STEVE: Right.
13	RACHEL: services that we provide. So you
14	can update all that basic and demographic information
15	that I was talking about. You can update all of that for
16	free online.
17	STEVE: Okay.
18	RACHEL: If you want to build the report up,
19	you can actually self-report some of the expenses that
20	aren't being captured on here where you provide
21	STEVE: Okay.
22	RACHEL: the contact information for the
23	vendor.
24	STEVE: Okay.
25	RACHEL: We'll go to that vendor to get the

1	payment history to verify and add to your credit report.	1
2	STEVE: So how do I do that? Do I do that	2
3	where do I do that at?	3
4	RACHEL: That's (inaudible) of self-reporting	4
4 5 6	vendors. So that process of self-reporting vendors is a	5
6	service that we provide. It's a paid-for service. So	6
7	your company	7
8	STEVE: Okay.	8
9	RACHEL: would purchase the service with us.	9
10	It's called Credit Builder Plus. It gives you access to	10
11	monitor your scores for a year and it gives you the	11
12	ability to report vendor information for up to 12 vendors	12
13	over the course of the year.	13
14	And at the same time, you can dispute those	14
15	payments. But you can dispute those for free. You don't	15
16	need a paid-for service to do that. Okay?	16
17	STEVE: Okay.	17
18	RACHEL: Now, the service retails at $1,599.	18
19	But based off of the size of your business and the	19
20	limited number of expenses that you have, we'll offer you	20
21	a discount if you're interested in proactively building	21
22	the report. That brings the cost of the service down to	22
23	$800.	23
24	STEVE: Well, I'd like to know what it is	24
25	first. You know, I'd like to go in there and check on	25

that.
RACHEL: On what is in the report currently?
STEVE: Right.
RACHEL: Okay. So you can do that right on our website for free.
STEVE: Okay.
RACHEL: What you want to do is go on the website and register your email address.
STEVE: What is my number anyway?
RACHEL: Your DUNS number let me give it to you is
STEVE: Okay,
RACHEL: No, it's
STEVE: Oh, I'm sorry.
RACHEL: Yes.
STEVE: So
RACHEL: Yes.
STEVE: So three zeroes and RACHEL: And at the very beginning is a

- STEVE: Got that.
- RACHEL: Yeah. So it's a total of nine digits.

STEVE: I always worry about the big zeroes. You know, the zeroes, man, you can tell -- that gets you off real quick. It's got to be the right number.

RACHEL: Right, yeah.

1	STEVE: Sorry about my bad joke about owner and
2	chief bottle washer. I when you're a small business,
3	you do a lot of things.
4	RACHEL: Oh, no, no. That's okay. It wasn't a
5	problem at all. I mean, I understand exactly how how
6	that works. You're a jack of all trades. You do all
7	kinds of stuff for the company.
7 8	STEVE: Yes, yes, yes, yes.
9	RACHEL: I mean, realistically your scores and
10	ratings, I don't know how long ago this company pulled a
11	copy of your report. It looks like they pulled it the
12	most recent pulls happened in the last 90 days. But they
13	didn't happen, like
14	STEVE: Probably one of those was
15
16	RACHEL: last March.
17	STEVE:
18	RACHEL: Yes. So it doesn't look like they
19	checked it last month. And last month is when that
20	$20,000 payment, the negative payment, was reported to
21	the credit file. So if you go onto our website and you
22	register for a free account right on the website, you can
23	take a look at the free information in the credit file,
24	the basic info for free, including that payment history.
25	STEVE: Right.

1	RACHEL: And you can put the disputes in to at	1	STEVE: went out of business
2	least start getting access and figuring out, you know,	2	RACHEL: Oh, okay.
3	what's in here and get to the bottom of that part.	3	STEVE: a couple or three years ago. But
4	STEVE: Sure, Excellent, Okay, Well, I will	4	that's been four or five years ago that happened. I
5	take care of that.	5	think they went out of business a couple or three years
6	RACHEL: Okay?	6	ago. They were they did, like, home improvement type
7	STEVE: And I appreciate your help. So I'll	7	stuff, you know, remodeling and things like that.

6 7	STEVE: It's asking for a credit card.	6	STEVE: Right. MICKEV: Mm hmm. So the first one is Bayday.
	MICKEY: Oh, it shouldn't ask you for a credit	7	MICKEY: Mm-hmm. So the first one is Paydex.
8	card. You're just logging in, right? STEVE: Right. Let's see, let's try it again	8	What this does is it showcases how you pay your bills.
9 10	here.	9 10	That scoring system goes from a one to 100, and 80 means
10	MICKEY: It does not ask you for a credit card	10	that you pay within terms. So right now yours is a five. Okay? The next one
12	in this screen.	11	STEVE: Rating, CR-4.
12	STEVE: Google Dun Bradstreet login. Let's	12
13	see if that works.	13	MICKEY: Yeah. You can click around on all of
14	MICKEY: Yeah. Well, you know what, go to	14	those. You know, it's pretty obvious your credit limit recommendation is going to be a zero. But if you click
16	because we have two websites. So make sure you're on	15	on the payments, this will show you the unfavorable
17	www.d, like David, a-n-d, so apple, Nancy, David	10	comment for $20,000.
18	STEVE: Okay. Hang on a second.	17	STEVE: Comments.
19	MICKEY: B like boy	10	MICKEY: You've got to scroll down.
20	STEVE: Okay. Give me just a second here.	20	STEVE: Where do I find that?
20	Come on. Okay. Www-dot	20	MICKEY: When you click on payments, you have
21	MICKEY: D as in David, and, a-n-d, apple,	21	to scroll down a little bit and it shows you
23	Nancy, boy D again like David. So dandb, like Dun	22	STEVE: Oh, okay.
24	Bradstreet.com.	23	MICKEY: trends. Yeah, and then underneath
25	STEVE: Dunandb.	25	that it shows the unfavorable comment for $20,000. So
20	STEVE. Dunando.	23	that it shows the unavolable comment for $20,000. So
	10		12
1	MICKEY: But you don't spell out Dun, okay?	1	that's that's number one problem. And then you also
2	Just the letter D.	2	have these other other two vendors reporting yearly on
3	STEVE: DandB.	3	the short-term business credit for $1,000 and then the
4	MICKEY: Yes.	4	business service for 250.
5	STEVE: Right.	5	Now, the main problem one of the main
6	MICKEY: Okay.	6	problems is when you click under public filings, you have
7	STEVE: Dot-com. There.	7	all kinds of tax liens coming up.
8	MICKEY: It should look different, right?	8	STEVE: And those are all taken care of.
9	STEVE: Right.	9	MICKEY: Like, paid taken care of or you set up
10	MICKEY: Okay. On the left-hand corner,	10	arrangements
11	there's a log-in screen. Click on that.	11	STEVE: No. I have a payment plan. I've got
12	STEVE: There it is, got it. Boom, there it	12	that
13	is. Never save, no. Don't save those. Okay.	13	MICKEY: Okay.
14	I've got a quick view and a credit signal.	14	STEVE: in writing from the IRS.
15	MICKEY: Under quick view, click view report.	15	MICKEY: Okay. So, you know, there's two of
16	STEVE: Okay.	16	the same one reporting it looks like. But
17	MICKEY: And then the business summary is going	17	STEVE: Right.
18	to come up. So since a lot of that stuff is blank, how	18	MICKEY: It looks you know, when somebody
19	many employees do you guys have?	19	else looks at it, I mean, it looks like you owe like
20	STEVE: Three.	20	$80,000 or probably more because that same one posted on
21	MICKEY: Okay. What do you what is it that	21	there twice. Let me see the total amount of open liens
22	the company does?	22	showing. Yeah, like it looks like you guys owe $90,287
23	STEVE: Drug testing.	23	total.

23 STEVE: Drug testing. MICKEY: Okay. And then the estimated revenue 24 per year is about 120?

2	STEVE: Hang on just a second here.	2	MICKEY: Oh, no.
3	(Brief pause.)	3	STEVE: And yes. And so I took out some
4	STEVE: Yeah, it's actually $34,000. And I	4	a couple of these advances just to kind of bridge. They
5	have an agreement payment agreement for $100 a month.	5	are the attorney general here I think is fixing to
6	That's going to be reduced even further. They actually	6	file a class action lawsuit, it sounds like. Because
7	because I have an attorney working on it.	7	some of these places are doing those daily pays, which
8	MICKEY: Mm-hmm.	8	they were doing with us, and it's the way they're
9	STEVE: They are looking into that because they	9	compounding them. It looks like interest rate, which I
10	were saying we didn't file some 1120Ss, which we did, and	10	didn't understand.
11	941s. So I had to turn all those over that I had here.	11	They said, you know, we're giving you this
12	MICKEY: Okay.	12	you know, this rate at 15 percent. But what it is it's
13	STEVE: And they're going to go back and	13	15 percent of your daily gross revenues, and so it ends
14	renegotiate that. It's probably going to be closer to	14	up to be like 200, 300 percent interest, which is illegal
15	$14,000 is what the attorney said.	15	in the State of because the State of has a
16	MICKEY: Oh, good. So you guys should be able	16	set maximum interest rate that can be charged on loans.
17	to pay that off.	17	MICKEY: Oh, okay. Well, as soon as you get
18	STEVE: So that's why they just did it for $100	18	that, if you do get those paid or if you want to dispute
19	a month because, I mean, you can't owe that much money to	19	those, you can always dispute them off of the report,
20	the IRS and they're going to let you pay $100 a month.	20	too. And that's part of the free service. The only
21	MICKEY: Right.	21	problem is is you're only able to dispute five items at a
22	STEVE: Yeah. And so they even deferred the	22	time.
23	payments until March, the end of March, so they could get	23	STEVE: Right.
24	all this cleaned up before the payments start.	24	MICKEY: So you can dispute the five and
25	MICKEY: Okay. So you can just view those.	25	then
	14	-	16
1	Like I said earlier, basic updates and disputes are done	1	STEVE: The only one I need to the only one
2	at no charge. But to be honest with you, to have an	2	I need to fix right now, the main one, is that lien
3	impact on your scores and your ratings, you are going to	3	because that's of course, the lien stays in force, but
4	need to add more references in here more payment	4	we do have a agreement
5	references to help improve your payment summary.	5	MICKEY: Yeah. And at this point
6	STEVE: Okay.	6	STEVE: which I have in writing.
7	MICKEY: So that's where the service comes in.	7	MICKEY: I mean, it looks like there's two
8	So that's done through the CreditBuilder. So that's a	8	that are the same lien being reported.
9	service that you pay for, and that allows you to add the	9	STEVE: Right.
10	payment history to help improve your status on Dun &	10	MICKEY: Okay. So that because it's on
11	Bradstreet.	11	there twice, it looks like it's two separate liens when
12	STEVE: Okay. And these these loans that	12	you look, like, on paper. You know what I mean?
13	are out	13	STEVE: Right.
14	MICKEY: The	14	MICKEY: So you're going to need to dispute
15	STEVE: and the state of that, those are	15	those. And then plus that $20,000 slow payment, or the
16	probably going to be	16	unfavorable comment. That also needs to be taken care
17	MICKEY: Validated?	17	of, too.
18	STEVE: No. Those are probably going to be	18	STEVE: Right.
19	wiped out. Those were the State Attorney General is	19	MICKEY: And then in the meantime, you're going
20	fixing to go after some of these companies. And I we	20	to need start adding in the tradelines. Now you can't
21	took this money out, we were the first part of last year.	21	see this on your end, but there have been 11 inquiries on

23	and alcohol testing. We lost about $6,000 a month in	23	STEVE: Right.

But as long as you can get the documents uploaded in there, then it should should go pretty quickly. STEVE: Okay, good. Well, that's all I'll need. MICKEY: That's fine. Yeah, and if you are wanting to set up that credit builder service, this way you can focus on, you know, multiple things at once to get the file cleaned up. That would be the best option for you guys. Even if you set the service up on a monthly basis for now, I would definitely recommend you to do that. Okay? STEVE: How much does that run? 16	MICHAEL Yeah, well, I don't know how	16	JIM: No. So usually a company will pay for
17	you're crunching your numbers. I really don't care, but	17	the service fee, they'll log in, they'll add their top 25
18	you can't be putting this out. You know, if you don't	18	vendors. It takes about 20, 25 minutes. And then we do
19	give us the top-rated score, then we just need to get off	19	the rest of the work. We contact them; verify the credit
20	of there because you're putting out something that's not	20	limits and terms; and they mainly input that information
21	factual. And how you came up with it, I don't care, but	21	on your report for you. That way, when you have

5	MICHAEL (inaudible). No, I'm not	5

7	us the proper score, then I want off the listing. I'm	7
8	not happy with what's going on	8
9	JIM: Well, what	9
10	MICHAEL because I'm busy. I don't	10
11	have time to run checks or paperwork. I don't want to be	11
12	paying you guys for baloney, and so, you know, either fix	12
13	it or turn me off.	13
14	JIM: Okay. Well, with all due respect, sir,	14
15 16	the DUNS number is there. You know, it's been there	15

1	PETER: Yeah. You know, there's no there's	1	PETER: 250.
2	no selling selling up or anything like that.	2	NICKI: Okay. So you've definitely grown over
3	NICKI: Yeah. I'm going to I'm actually	3	the last few years. That's amazing.
4	pulling it up on my phone, too, so that I have it when I	4	PETER: Yeah. Well, that in this company,

6	PETER: Yeah, yeah.	6	NICKI: Okay. 250. And

10	NICKI: Okay, cool. Yeah, I'm going to go on	10
11	it. All right. So, yes, we do need to get a number	11	PETER: Yeah, okay.
12	generated for	12	NICKI: Yep. I have to because there's not
13	PETER: Okay.	13	a number in this (inaudible) have to fill in all of the
14	NICKI: And it's like a egg,	14	spaces.

16	PETER: Correct, yeah, yes.	16	NICKI: Yeah.
17	NICKI: Okay.	17	PETER: Okay.
18	PETER: It's	18	NICKI: And then what are your your revenue
19	NICKI: Okay. And then what I'm doing now is	19 20	per year? Your revenue?
20 21	I'm loading your other business. So I'm going to pull up	20	PETER: Let me see. We added some new schools,
21	that credit information. This way, we can compare and see like if the address is going to be the same and I can	21	so let me (inaudible). 4.8 million. NICKI: Okay. Oh, yeah, we definitely need to
23	just copy and paste a lot of it. Which is it is this	22	start showcasing some credit history for your business.

25	PETER: No, that's old, yeah.	25	opening some new schools, right?
		15	opening some new concept right.
	10		12
1	NICKI: Oh, okay.	1	PETER: Yes, uh-huh.
2	PETER: Yeah.	2	NICKI: Okay. Are you projecting that is
3	NICKI: So what's your new address or current?	3	that what's going to make you hit the 4 4 million,
4	PETER: Our address our current address is	4	4.8?
5 6		5	PETER: Well, we're currently doing 4.8.
6	NICKI: Okay.	6	NICKI: Okay, okay. So once you open those new
7	PETER: And it's	7	locations, then it's going to grow quite a bit more?
8	NICKI:	8	PETER: Yes, yeah, exactly.
9	PETER:	9	NICKI: Okay. Now, as far as Dun & Bradstreet
10	NICKI: Okay.	10	is concerned, you know, I'm going to help you build this
11	PETER: just an NW	11	credit report and showcase the financial stability of the
12	NICKI: Uh-huh.	12	business. Are you planning on using this number for any
13	PETER: and then Suite	13	purpose, you know, a bank loan, new vendor accounts,
14	NICKI: Okay.	14	customers?
15	PETER: And it's the second second	15	PETER: Nothing yeah, but I've had some, you
16	NICKI: Okay you said	16 17	know, vendors ask us, you know, for a Dun & Bradstreet number. We acquired these two schools and,
17 18	PETER: Yeah, NICKI, Okay perfect All right And you are	18	number. We acquired these two schools and, you know, they were schools that are 15 years old. So
18	NICKI: Okay, perfect. All right. And you are 100 percent owner or do you have business partners?	18	they have a lot of history.
20	PETER: I have a partner. I'm	20	NICKI: Wow. Mm-hmm. Yeah, and that could be
20	NICKI: Okay. So we list your partner, too, or	20	concerning because some of the vendors and suppliers that
21	is it okay just to have your name for now?	22	they're already dealing with because not saying that
23	PETER: Yeah, mine for now because he's silent.	23	your business is going to fail or anything, but a lot of
23	NICKI: Okay, okay, perfect. And how many	24	times when people buy companies, the percentages of that

2	PETER: Mm-hmm.	2	like specific time frames as far as how soon you wanted
3	NICKI: I mean, you're an existing business	3	to start building the business credit or do you have a
4	owner, so you're not going to have any problems.	4	few months to work on it?
5	PETER: Right.	5	PETER: Yeah, I have a few months to work on
6	NICKI: But give it to a brand new person, you	6	it.
7	know, who wants to try to buy a business, you know, the	7	NICKI: Okay. So there's two options. For now
8	chances of them running it into the ground is a lot	8	since you have a few months to work on it, I'm going to
9	higher than, you know, an experienced person like	9	set you up with the Credit Builder Service. So that's
10	yourself.	10	what's going to allow you to self-report your payment
11	PETER: Mm-hmm.	11	history, to work on building and establishing a credit
12	NICKI: So it's common. You know, the way that	12	for the company.

17	PETER: Right.	17	PETER: Okay.
18	NICKI: So we do not get that information	18	NICKI: All right. So the DUNS number is going

22	PETER: Yeah.	22	start reporting the 30-plus vendors that you do have,
23	NICKI: we're going to need to physically	23	Peter.

1	NICKI: This way, you can work on building your business credit.	$\begin{vmatrix} 1\\2 \end{vmatrix}$	service fee. It's 2,148 for the year, 2,148. And for that, you could use either a credit or a debit card. How
2 3	PETER: Okay, good.	$\frac{2}{3}$	did you want to take care of that?
4	NICKI: Now, the phone number so is this	4	PETER: Okay. Credit.
5	your cell phone or is this a business phone number?	5	NICKI: Okay. And that number whenever you're
6	PETER: This is my cell phone.	6	ready?
7	NICKI: Okay. So what's your business phone	7	PETER: [REDACTED].
8	number? I don't want to put your cell phone on the	8	NICKI: And the expiration?
9	credit report unless you don't mind people calling you.	9	PETER: [REDACTED].
10	PETER: Yeah, that's okay, yeah. Yeah, put	10	NICKI: [REDACTED], okay. And then the billing
11	that on there for now.	11	address is the new one that you gave me, right? The
12	NICKI: Okay, all right. And if you ever want	12
13	to change that, you can.	13	PETER: Yeah, the Yes.
14	PETER: Okay.	14	NICKI: Okay, perfect. Now, the Dun
15	NICKI: Yeah. So just keep in contact with me	15	Bradstreet number itself is free. What we're setting you
16	and I'll show you where the update the free information.	16	up with the tools to start building and establishing the
17	PETER: Okay.	17	credit behind the business. So you will be getting the
18 19	NICKI: And then this business when did	18 19	receipt in just a couple of minutes emailed over to you. Again, it's the Credit Builder Premium. With the

20	NICKI: Okay. And you said 250 employees?	20	We partner with two separate companies. So one
21	PETER: Mm-hmm.	21	is LegalZoom, which you get some free documents, some
23	NICKI: Okay. And you registered in the State	23	legal documents. We'll share your basic information with
24	of	24	them. And then the other is a company called Redact-It
25	PETER: Yes.	25	and they do dark web monitoring. So we'll share your

2	it's a platform where if, for some reason, they see like	2	PETER: Inaudible).

4	they'll send you alerts and notifications so that you	4	PETER: Yeah, it's it's really there's
5	can, you know, change your passwords or something like	5	over six million kids using it. So it's pretty cool.
6	that to help prevent you from getting hacked.	6	NICKI: That is so awesome. And actually you
7	PETER: Okay.	7	said that there is an app, right?
8	NICKI: And then the service is set for auto-	8	PETER: Yeah, there's apps and you can just log
9	renewal each year at the current price at the then	9	in once you get a subscription. Send me your stuff.

11	PETER: Okay.	11	NICKI: Okay.
12	NICKI: So I submitted everything. Let's	12	PETER: I'll give you a free year.
13	schedule a call sometime next week, Peter. Once you get	13	NICKI: Yeah, cool.
14	the number, I would like to show you where to submit your	14	PETER: Okay. That way I'll send it to you
15	payment history and kind of walk you through it so that	15	next week. All my staff's leaving right now.
16	you know what you're doing because it can be a little	16	NICKI: Okay, okay, awesome. Like just my
17	confusing at first. But once you get the hang of it	17	Gmail email and stuff like that?
18	PETER: Okay.	18	PETER: Yeah, send that to me and then I'll
19	NICKI: it's pretty simple.	19	send you a code that will give you a free subscription
20	PETER: Okay.	20	for a year.
21	NICKI: So you should have your number in three	21	NICKI: Okay.
22	to five days. How about this? Let me email you my	22	PETER: And it's up it's good for up to
23	contact and if you get it sooner, then you can call me.	23	three kids.
24	If not, then we can schedule for like next Friday. Would	24	NICKI: Awesome. That is so exciting. Okay.
25	that work for you?	25	And I just sent you an email with my contact information,
	18		20
1	PETER: Yeah, that would work.	1	too. So, yeah, let's schedule some time next week and
2	NICKI: Okay. But if you get it sooner, then I	2	I'll give you the walk through and show you how to do it.
3	want you to call me.	3	And like I said, I mean, I know that you are a growing
4	PETER: Okay. Yeah, I just got all the stuff	4	business and opening and running, you know, seven schools
5	that you just	5	is probably not the easiest.
6	NICKI: Okay, cool. And you can actually log	6	PETER: I have yeah, I have a whole staff,
7	in now and reset your passwords and everything.	7	though. So I
8	PETER: Okay.	8	NICKI: Okay.
9	NICKI: Let me	9	PETER: I'll have my operations person, her
10	PETER: Yeah, I'm inaudible).	10	name is Brittany.
11	NICKI: Where's my email?	11	NICKI: Okay.
12	Pause.)	12	PETER: And I'll introduce you I'll
13	NICKI: Hold on one second. I don't know where	13	introduce her to you Friday. And then you can show her
14	my email was closed out for some reason.	14	and she can do everything.
15	Pause.)	15	NICKI: Yeah, okay, perfect. Sounds good.
16	NICKI: So how did you come up with that	16	PETER: All right. Okay, sounds good. Thanks
17	program?	17	a lot.
18	PETER: Oh, it's just years of previous stuff	18	NICKI: Okay, you're welcome.
19	that we were doing inaudible).	19	PETER: All right, all right, see ya, bye.

22	PETER: Oh, yeah, there's it's very cool.	22	NICKI: All right.
23	There's like a thousand employees out in that	23	PETER: See ya, bye.

There's like a thousand employees out in that

10				JONATHAN: Good. You may have received

1	to publish you publish like my business name, correct?
2	JONATHAN: Yeah, go ahead.
3	JOSEPH: And I understand it will be
4	categorized so people know how to get to me and they'll
5	be able to see how big the business is, you know, that
6	kind of thing, correct?
7	JONATHAN: Yeah, that's let me just kind of
8	cover the bases just to be safe, okay?
9	JOSEPH: Sure. Certainly.
10	JONATHAN: Dun Bradstreet, kind of like how
11	Equifax or Transunion hold our personal credit, we're the
12	ones who house the credit reports for companies
13	worldwide, strictly business. So to put this into
14	perspective, okay, your legal structure, the LLC, I
15	assume you set it up to help protect yourself from tax
16	and liability purposes, right?
17	JOSEPH: Yes, correct.
18	JONATHAN: So let's just say, for example, you
19	go out there and you open a credit card for the business
20	and you end up putting down your Social Security number
21	to secure the card, which is oftentimes what these banks
22	may try and get you to do, regardless of the legal
23	structure that you have. If you use your Social Security
24	number, you end up putting that liability back on
25	yourself. You're still responsible.

1	report is set up correctly for what you're trying to
2	accomplish because business credit is reported a lot
3	differently than personal credit.
4	JOSEPH: Yeah.
5	JONATHAN: So I'm just going to run through
6	what we have. First, if there's anything that you need
7	changed or updated, you let me know so I can submit the
8	changes for you, okay?
9	JOSEPH: Okay.
10	JONATHAN: Okay. So, Joseph, almost we have
11	you currently listed as the owner of the company. Is
12	there any other titles that you want to be listed as?
13	Principal, president?
14	JOSEPH: Um, yeah.
15	JONATHAN: CEO?
16	JOSEPH: President. Yes, president probably,
17	okay?
18	JONATHAN: Yeah.
19	JOSEPH: CEO, that would be fine, too. It's
20	just basically, it's just me at this point.
21	JONATHAN: Okay, I got ya. Address that I show
22	for the business is ,
23
24	JOSEPH: That's correct, yes.
25	IONATHAN. Is that also going to be the mailing

6 1 JOSEPH: Ah, I see. 1 address? 2 JONATHAN: That's where we come into play. 2 JOSEPH: Yes. 3 JONATHAN: Perfect. The phone number that I 3 JOSEPH: I see. 4 JONATHAN: Dun Bradstreet, we're going to show for the business is 4 assign to you what's called a DUNS number. You're going 5 JOSEPH: Yes, correct. 5 to have a DUNS number throughout the life of the 6 JONATHAN: And any other phone number or fax 6 7 7 business, whether you want it, need it, or know it. It's number that you need listed? 8 8 still nine digits. So any time you're setting up any JOSEPH: Yeah, fax number is 9 9 type of credit accounts moving forward, it's important JONATHAN: Okay. And do you have a website 10 that you are proactively using this DUNS number alongside 10 that you would like listed? 11 that tax ID number or the EIN number to help you build JOSEPH: I don't at the moment. 11 12 real credit for the business or, more importantly, use it 12 JONATHAN: Okay. 13 in place of your own Social Security number. So you're 13 JOSEPH: I do not. 14 helping to separate yourself financially. You're helping 14 JONATHAN: Now, is there anybody else that you 15 to protect your personal credit and your assets and 15 need listed on the report besides yourself? 16 you're letting the company stand on its own. 16 JOSEPH: Nope, just me. JOSEPH: Yeah. JONATHAN: Perfect. You're the only one that's 17 17 going to be able to use this DUNS number in place of your 18 JONATHAN: Does that make more sense? 18 19 JOSEPH: Yes, of course. 19 Social. You started the business this year, 2019. 20 JONATHAN: Okay. So my job, Joseph, is to make 20 Congratulations, again. Do you have any employees or 21 sure the information LegalZoom is sending us is accurate 21 just yourself? 22 and make sure the report is set up correctly for what 22 JOSEPH: No, it's just myself at the moment. you're trying to accomplish because --23 23 JONATHAN: All right. How about the estimated 24 JOSEPH: Excuse me. 24 sales? What are you projecting for the first year? 25 25 What's your goal? JONATHAN: No, no worries, man. Make sure the

	JONATHAN: I got y	a.
	JOSEPH: I have med	hanically a mechanical

4	products at the moment. But no idea exactly. 50,000,
3 5	something like that. That's not much.
2 1 3 s 4	JONATHAN: I got ya. Starting point, I got ya.
5	JOSEPH: Okay.
6	JONATHAN: Now, the company name, was it
7 8	actually accepted by the state yet or was that still in
8 t	he planning process?
9	JOSEPH: Yes, it yes, it was, uh-huh.
10	JONATHAN: What name was accepted?
11	JOSEPH:
12
13	JONATHAN:
14	JOSEPH: Yes.
15	JONATHAN: Perfect. Are you going to be doing
16 1	ousiness under any other name?
17	JOSEPH:
18	JONATHAN: Yes.
19	JOSEPH: Possibility. I've got another idea,
20 a	another product that I'm looking at and that has a whole
21 0	lifferent name.
22	JONATHAN: Okay. Did you register any DBAs
23 1	with LegalZoom?
24	JOSEPH: No. Um, a DBA, yes, I did.
25	JONATHAN: So which DBA?

JOSEPH: Well, we're just developing several

4	engineering background for 50 years.
5	JONATHAN: Nice.
6	JOSEPH: Just putting it to use here.
7	Actually, I retired a couple years ago
8	JONATHAN: You're developing a
9	JOSEPH: (inaudible).
10	JONATHAN: product tell me about the
11	product that you're developing for coffee you said.
12	JOSEPH: Yeah. It's a for pour-over coffee.
13	It's a tapper type of device for compacting coffee and a
14	spotter for when they pour are you familiar with pour-
15	over coffee?
16	JONATHAN: Yeah, absolutely.
17	JOSEPH: A lot of people a lot of people do
18	that. Well, they're missing one key element I just
19	discovered and that is the coffee needs to be compacted
20	and a spot in the center for the first pour.
21	JONATHAN: Okay.
22	JOSEPH: So I developed a little plastic device
23	and now I turned it into a stainless steel device that's
24	basically a compactor.

JONATHAN: Nice.

10

25

1	JOSEPH: It's	1
2	JONATHAN: So the legal name is	2
3		3
	JOSEPH: Correct.	4
4 5	JONATHAN: And what the DBA is doing	5
6	business as.	6
	JOSEPH: Correct.	7
7 8 9	JONATHAN: So if you're going to be doing	8
9	business under any other name, what other names did you	9
10	get registered?	10
11	JOSEPH: The other I haven't actually taken	11
12	out a DBA with the other name yet.	12
13	JONATHAN: Okay. No worries then. We'll just	13
14	leave it as is. Now, the line of business, just so I can	14
15	help you understand where this report might come into	15
16	play, tell me a little bit more about the business. What	16
17	exactly do you do?	17
18	JOSEPH: Well, designing products, just kind of	18
19	all over the board. At the moment, I've got one product	19
20	that's dealing with coffee, the other one is with a	20
21	patrol car. So, you know, the manufacturing, sheet metal	21
22	design, plastic injection molding, plastics. So it's	22
23	kind of all over the board.	23
24	JONATHAN: Okay.	24
25	JOSEPH: But I want to put it under one	25

12 JOSEPH: Or tapper as they call it tapper

1	JOSEPH: Or tapper as they call it, tapper.
2	JONATHAN: Just so you're trying to get this
3	tapper into different baristas and things of that nature?
4	JOSEPH: Correct.
5	JONATHAN: Gotcha.
6	JOSEPH: 4.5 million people make pour-over
7	coffee every day and they're they're missing one key
8	element. This, which makes the coffee slightly stronger,
9	fuller-body, better coffee.
10	JONATHAN: Okay, okay. So you have another
11	you've already developed this product and now you're in
12	the manufacturing stage?
13	JOSEPH: I'm just I'm just finishing the
14	prototyping stage and I just I gave it a name. I've
15	got a flyer how it operates and will be sending it out to
16	I guess more a focus group type of thing first, get a
17	response out of it.
18	JONATHAN: Absolutely. What's your next step?
19	JOSEPH: Next step would be to research coffee
20	forums online to see where I can get into and get some
21	exposure and go from there.
22	JONATHAN: Okay. That's kind of where this
23	report may come into play, especially if you're going to
24	deal with like I'm just going to use Starbucks for an
25	example because

4/20/2020

	13		15
1	JOSEPH: Mm-hmm.	1	contact them and talk to them
2	JONATHAN: huge opportunity there, right?	2	JONATHAN: Okay.
3	JOSEPH: Sure. Sure. I may go do it.	3	JOSEPH: and secure them. Once that police
4	JONATHAN: So it's exactly. If Starbucks	4	officer puts cuffs on him, he's there responsibility to
5	wants to make sure that you can deliver as many tappers	5	inaudible)
6	as they need, that's typically where they pull the	6	JONATHAN: Oh, yeah, absolutely.
7	report. Make sure you're financially stable yourself.	7	JOSEPH: and walks out into traffic, he's
8	There's no lawsuits, liens, judgments, bankruptcies,	8	dead and it's his fault.
9	things of that nature.	9	JONATHAN: Yeah, I got ya.
10	Have you have you set up any type of credit	10	JOSEPH: It's a it's basically a very
11	accounts with like vendors, suppliers, sheet metal	11	simple fold-down seat I'm surprised nobody's done it
12	company?	12	before to sit is basically what it comes down to. And
13	JOSEPH: Not yet, but that's another step.	13	I'm in the process of building a prototype of that at the
14	That's coming up.	14	moment as well.
15	JONATHAN: Okay. That's also where the report	15	JONATHAN: Where are you in the development
16	may come into play. When they're negotiating giving you	16	stage?
17	terms of even credit lines, a lot of times they pull the	17	JOSEPH: We've got one piece that is we're
18	report, again, just to make sure you're financially	18	waiting for a latch. Everything else is done. We should
19	stable yourself. It's a common business practice.	19	have it up and running here in the next couple of months.
20	Where do you see the that product in the	20	JONATHAN: Okay.
21	next, let's say, 6 to 12 months?	21	JOSEPH: And, again, it will have to be you
22	JOSEPH: Well, it should be it should be in	22	know, we'll get it in front of the people that can give
23	full production by then and yeah. And it should be	23	us feedback and we can go from there.
24	after I've done all the research of getting you know,	24	JONATHAN: Absolutely. So oftentimes oh, so
25	you got to get to the right people	25	you're going to be dealing with like the state, the city

1	JONATHAN: Yeah.	1
2	JOSEPH: obviously trade shows that do all	2
3	this as well	3
4	JONATHAN: Mm-hmm.	4
5	JOSEPH: and to many of those. You know,	5
6	just exposure is probably going to be a big you know,	6
7	getting that first exposure out there is my big push.	7
8	JONATHAN: Absolutely. What about the you	8
9	said something about a product that you're developing for	9
10	a patrol car?	10
11	JOSEPH: Yeah. It's a you've seen you've	11
12	seen the way there's patrol cars with a push bumper in	12
13	the front?	13
14	JONATHAN: Yes.	14
15	JOSEPH: Yeah, yeah. Well, one of the things	15
16	that I've known I've seen and watched many times when	16
17	the police pull somebody over, they usually they	17
18	actually detain that person. They usually make them sit	18
19	on the ground.	19
20	JONATHAN: Mm-hmm.	20
21	JOSEPH: I'm developing I'm developing a	21
22	fold-down seat that mounts right in that front bumper so	22
23	they sit there instead of the ground	23
24	JONATHAN: Got it.	24
25	JOSEPH: facing the policy, so they can	25

and things of that natura law enforcement?

1	and things of that nature, law enforcement?
2	JOSEPH: Yeah, right.
3	JONATHAN: Okay. So the city, the state, they
4	will primarily use this DUNS number so they can pay you
5	on the products they purchase from you, okay?
6	JOSEPH: Mm-hmm.
7	JONATHAN: They use
8	JOSEPH: Yeah, right.
9	JONATHAN: they use the DUNS number like a
10	tracking system between you two. Now, same concept. If
11	they want to make sure if you're you know, that aspect
12	alone, just having a DUNS number is for just so they
13	can pay you. But in the same in the same respect, if
14	they want to make sure you can deliver goods as promised,
15	they want to make sure you're financially stable, that's
16	within your best interest to start reporting the bills.
17	Business credit, it's not like our personal credit. Like
18	my personal credit, for example, my mortgage company,
19	credit card payments, car payments, these things report
20	on me automatically. As an individual, all I really have
21	to do is pay my bills on time.
22	Now
23	JOSEPH: Mm-hmm.
24	JONATHAN: in the business world, it's
25	really more about the cash flow. Where are you going to

JOSEPH: Okay, yes, I hear, yeah. JONATHAN: That's it. The next step is getting you set up to go through what's called a Credit Builder program. #### UNITED STATES OF AMERICA BEFORE THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

COMMISSIONERS:

Lina M. Khan, Chair Noah Joshua Phillips Rebecca Kelly Slaughter Christine S. Wilson

In the Matter of

DUN & BRADSTREET, INC., a corporation, d/b/a D&B.

DECISION AND ORDER

DOCKET NO. C-4761

DECISION

The Federal Trade Commission ("Commission") initiated an investigation of certain acts and practices of the Respondent named in the caption. The Commission's Bureau of Consumer Protection ("BCP") prepared and furnished to Respondent a draft Complaint. BCP proposed to present the draft Complaint to the Commission for its consideration. If issued by the Commission, the draft Complaint would charge the Respondent with violations of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

Respondent and BCP thereafter executed an Agreement Containing Consent Order ("Consent Agreement"). The Consent Agreement includes: 1) statements by Respondent that, only for purposes of this action, it admits the facts necessary to establish jurisdiction; and 2) waivers and other provisions as required by the Commission's Rules.

The Commission considered the matter and determined that it had reason to believe that Respondent has violated the Federal Trade Commission Act, and that a Complaint should issue stating its charges in that respect. The Commission accepted the executed Consent Agreement and placed it on the public record for a period of 30 days for the receipt and consideration of public comments. The Commission duly considered any comments received from interested persons pursuant to Section 2.34 of its Rules, 16 C.F.R. § 2.34. Now, in further conformity with the procedure prescribed in Rule 2.34, the Commission issues its Complaint, makes the following Findings, and issues the following Order:

Findings

- The Respondent is Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., also doing business as D&B, a Delaware corporation with its principal office or place of business at 101 John F. Kennedy Parkway, Short Hills, NJ 07078.
- 2. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding and over the Respondent, and the proceeding is in the public interest.

ORDER

Definitions

For purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

- A. "Billing Information" means any data that enables any person to access a customer's account, such as a credit card, checking, savings, share or similar account, or debit card.
- B. "Business" means any business or other entity, including nonprofits, cities, counties, municipalities, and other governmental entities.
- C. "Charge," "Charged," or "Charging" means any attempt to collect money or other consideration from a consumer, including causing Billing Information to be submitted for payment, including against the consumer's credit card, debit card, bank account, telephone bill, or other account.
- D. "Clearly and Conspicuously" means that a required disclosure is difficult to miss (i.e., easily noticeable) and easily understandable by ordinary consumers, including in all of the following ways:
  - In any communication that is solely visual or solely audible, the disclosure must be made through the same means through which the communication is presented. In any communication made through both visual and audible means, such as a television advertisement, the disclosure must be presented simultaneously in both the visual and audible portions of the communication even if the representation requiring the disclosure ("triggering representation") is made through only one means.
  - A visual disclosure, by its size, contrast, location, the length of time it appears, and other characteristics, must stand out from any accompanying text or other visual elements so that it is easily noticed, read, and understood.
  - An audible disclosure, including by telephone or streaming video, must be delivered in a volume, speed, and cadence sufficient for ordinary consumers to easily hear and understand it.

- 4. In any communication using an interactive electronic medium, such as the Internet or software, the disclosure must be unavoidable.
- The disclosure must use diction and syntax understandable to ordinary consumers and must appear in each language in which the triggering representation appears.
- 6. The disclosure must comply with these requirements in each medium through which it is received, including all electronic devices and face-to-face communications.
- 7. The disclosure must not be contradicted or mitigated by, or inconsistent with, anything else in the communication.
- When the representation or sales practice targets a specific audience, such as children, the elderly, or the terminally ill, "ordinary consumers" includes reasonable members of that group.
- E. "Covered Product" means all CreditBuilder Line Products, either sold alone or with other products or services as part of a combined or bundled package; any product or service that includes an option to submit or add the names of or information about a Business's vendors, suppliers, or other entities to that Business's own credit report or credit file; and any product or service that Respondent markets to Businesses as being designed to allow a Business to monitor its own credit report, including CreditMonitor.
- F. "CreditBuilder 2018" means the CreditBuilder "basic" product in the form that Respondent began offering in January 2018 and includes subscriptions with an initial purchase date (prior to any renewals) from January 1, 2018 through April 30, 2020.
- G. "CreditMonitor Substitute Product" means a CreditBuilder Line Product to which Respondent migrated Businesses that had purchased CreditMonitor, during a period when Respondent temporarily stopped offering CreditMonitor, and any subsequent CreditBuilder Line Product to which Respondent migrated any such Business.
- H. "CreditBuilder Line Product" means CreditBuilder, CreditBuilder Basic, CreditBuilder Plus, CreditBuilder Premium, Credit Essentials, and Credit Essentials Plus, as well as any predecessor to, successor to, or variant of any of these products; and includes CreditBuilder 2018 as defined above.
- "Current Customer" includes Businesses that are customers of Respondent as of the date of the entry of this Order, and does not include a Business that first purchased a product after the date of the entry of this Order. When specifically stated in this Order, Current Customer may be further limited to exclude a Business that first purchased a product on or after May 1, 2020.
- J. "Negative Option Feature" means, in an offer or agreement to sell or provide any product or service, a provision under which the consumer's silence or failure to take affirmative action to reject a product or service or to cancel the agreement is interpreted by the seller or provider as acceptance of the offer.

- K. "Pro Rata Result" means the dollar figure resulting from applying discount adjustments and term adjustments to the figure of $399 for Refund Customers who are Current Customers, and to the figure of $480 for Refund Customers who are former customers. For a Relevant Subscription Term during which a customer paid a discounted price, the discount adjustment shall be a multiplier equal to the price paid divided by the list price (e.g., if a customer paid $800 for a product listed at $1,000, the discount adjustment multiplier is .8). For a Relevant Subscription Term that is less than a one-year term, the term adjustment shall be a multiplier equal to the length of the Relevant Subscription Term divided by one year (e.g., if the Relevant Subscription Term is three months, the term adjustment multiplier is .25). The effects of the adjustment multipliers shall be cumulative (multiplied by each other) if a customer paid a discounted price for a Relevant Subscription Term of less than one year.
- L. "Relevant Subscription Term" means the Business's current or most recent CreditBuilder Line Product subscription term.
- M. "Respondent" means Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., a corporation, doing business as D&B ("D&B"), and its successors and assigns.
- N. "Trade Reference" means a source, including a vendor, supplier, or other entity, that supplies Respondent (or that a Business represents could supply Respondent) with commercial payment information about a Business.
- O. The divisor of this calculation shall not be reduced for multiple attempted submissions by a Business of a single Trade Reference or a single payment experience, nor shall the divisor be reduced for any attempted submissions that Respondent has automatically rejected for any reason.

Re: Option to cancel your CreditBuilder product and potential refund from Dun & Bradstreet

Dear CreditBuilder Customer:

Our records show that you subscribed to our CreditBuilder product. We're writing to tell you that you can choose to cancel your CreditBuilder subscription and get a refund.

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC), the nation's consumer protection agency, recently filed a lawsuit against us. The FTC said we made misleading claims in our marketing of CreditBuilder and other products, including about your ability to add payment experiences to your credit report. We did not admit to these things, but to settle the lawsuit with the FTC, we're giving you the option to cancel your subscription and get a refund. Our records show the following CreditBuilder subscription is eligible for cancellation:

- [Description of the CreditBuilder subscription]
- You paid $xx.xx for the current subscription term
- The current list price is $xx.xx
- Your subscription ends on (Month, Day, Year)

If you want to cancel your subscription and get a refund, you must let us know within 30 days of the date on this letter by

- calling us at [toll free number],
- completing the online form at [web form URL], or

Re: In the Matter of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc. File No. 172 3197

Dear S and D Consolidated Services:

We would like to thank you for commenting on the Federal Trade Commission's ("Commission" or "FTC") proposed consent order in the above-referenced proceeding. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the agency's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. §4.9(b)(6)(ii). The Commission is committed to protecting small businesses from deceptive or other unlawful practices, and we appreciate your feedback on this matter.

According to our complaint against Dun & Bradstreet, Inc. ("D&B"), the company violated the FTC Act by engaging in deceptive practices in the sale of, and billing for, its CreditBuilder and related products that it has marketed directly to small and mid-sized businesses as a means to improve what D&B reports about them, and by engaging in unfair practices with respect to certain of its credit reporting practices.

Among other things, the proposed order prohibits D&B from making false or unsubstantiated claims that using D&B's product is likely to allow a business to have its previously unreported commercial payment experiences added to its credit report or is likely to help a business build or improve its credit report; requires D&B to make certain disclosures when offering CreditBuilder and related products; and sets out certain requirements related to D&B's product renewal and charging practices. Additionally, the proposed order sets out specific requirements for D&B to follow when a business (regardless of whether it is a D&B customer) disputes information that D&B reports about it.

In your comment, you state that after you purchased D&B's CreditBuilder product, D&B reported inaccurate information about your business and wrongly removed certain information from your credit report. You further state that D&B canceled your CreditBuilder subscription on its own accord and will not return your calls. As noted above, the proposed order against D&B addresses sales practices relating to CreditBuilder and specific requirements that D&B must follow when a business disputes information in its D&B credit report.

Having considered all the facts of this case and the comments submitted in response to the proposed order, the Commission has now determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Complaint and the Decision and Order in final form without any modifications. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at http://www.ftc.gov. The Commission thanks you again for your comment.

By direction of the Commission.

Dear Anonymous:

We would like to thank you for commenting on the Federal Trade Commission's ("Commission" or "FTC") proposed order in the above-referenced proceeding. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the agency's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. §4.9(b)(6)(ii). Additionally, the proposed consent order sets out specific requirements for D&B to follow when a business (regardless of whether it is a D&B customer) disputes information that D&B reports about it.

We understand from your comment that you purchased D&B's Hoovers product and that D&B did not fulfill the promises that it made when selling that product to you. Although the proposed order does not specifically mention D&B's Hoovers product, it does prohibit D&B from misrepresenting any material fact about the price or features of any of its products.

Having considered all the facts of this case and the comments submitted in response to the proposed order, the Commission has now determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Complaint and the Decision and Order in final form without any modifications. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at http://www.ftc.gov. The Commission thanks you again for your comment.

> Re: In the Matter of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc. File No. 172 3197

Dear Assistant Director Hedgespeth:

We would like to thank you for commenting on the Federal Trade Commission's ("Commission" or "FTC") proposed consent order in the above-referenced proceeding. The Commission has placed your comment on the public record pursuant to Rule 4.9(b)(6)(ii) of the agency's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. §4.9(b)(6)(ii). The Commission is committed to protecting small businesses from deceptive or other unlawful practices, and we appreciate your feedback on this matter.

Additionally, the proposed order sets out specific requirements for D&B to follow when a business (regardless of whether it is a D&B customer) disputes information that D&B reports about it.

In your comment, you note a number of important issues related to small business credit reporting. You further state that the CFPB looks forward to working with our agency to analyze data that the CFPB will collect pursuant to the congressional directive in Section 1071 of the Dodd-Frank Act, and to working with our agency and other partners to examine whether there are other unlawful practices occurring related to small business credit reporting.

We very much appreciate the CFPB's commitment to examining these issues and protecting the public. We look forward to working with the CFPB in the area of small business credit reporting, as our agencies work together in many other areas.

Having considered all the facts of this case and the comments submitted in response to the proposed consent order, the Commission has now determined that the public interest would best be served by issuing the Complaint and the Decision and Order in final form without any modifications. The final Decision and Order and other relevant materials are available from the Commission's website at http://www.ftc.gov. The Commission thanks you again for your comment.

By direction of the Commission.
