ORDER

CONDUCT RELIEF

I.

IT IS ORDERED that Defendants are permanently restrained and enjoined from advertising, marketing, promoting, selling, providing, or offering for sale, or assisting others in advertising, marketing, promoting, selling, providing, or offering for sale, any Credit Repair Service.

II.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants' officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all other Persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with the advertising, marketing, promoting, or offering for sale of any product or service (including any Business Opportunity or Investment Opportunity), are permanently restrained and enjoined from misrepresenting, expressly or by implication:

- A. The profitability, effectiveness, or income potential, including but not limited to claims of lifestyle changes tied to the representation, of any Business Opportunity or Investment Opportunity;
- B. That a product or service is legal or otherwise protected by any statute or rule;
- C. The terms of any refund, money-back guarantee, cancellation, exchange, or repurchase policy, or the circumstances under which a full or partial refund will be granted or denied;
- D. That a product or service is associated with a government benefit related to COVID-19;
- E. That a product or service is associated with the treatment, cure, prevention, mitigation, or diagnosis of COVID-19; or
- F. Any other fact material to consumers concerning any good or service, such as: the total costs; any material restrictions, limitations, or conditions; or any material aspect of its performance, efficacy, nature, or central characteristics.

III.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants' officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all other Persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with the advertising, marketing, promoting, or offering for sale of any product or service, are permanently restrained and enjoined from making any representation or assisting others in making any representation, expressly or by implication, about the benefits, performance, or efficacy of any product or service, unless the representation is non-misleading, and, at the time such representation is made, Defendants possess and rely upon competent and reliable evidence that is sufficient in quality and quantity based on standards generally accepted in the relevant field, when considered in light of the entire body of relevant and reliable evidence, to substantiate that the representation is true.

IV. MONETARY JUDGMENT AND PARTIAL SUSPENSION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Judgment in the amount of $18,875,613.94 is entered in favor of the Commission against Defendants, jointly and severally, as monetary relief pursuant to Section 19 of the FTC Act. The liability of Defendants for the judgment shall also be joint and several with any other defendants in this litigation to the extent subsequently ordered.

B. In partial satisfaction of the judgment entered against Defendants, and to the extent not already done so:

1. Fifth Third Bank shall, within ten (10) business days of receipt of a copy of this Order, transfer to the FTC, the Receiver, or the FTC's designated agent all funds, if any, in the account ending in -8167 in the name of Elite Customer Services, LLC; and

2. Wells Fargo Bank shall, within ten (10) business days of receipt of a copy of this Order, transfer to the FTC, the Receiver, or the FTC's designated agent all funds, if any, in the account ending in -8154 in the name of Resource Management Investments, LLC.

C. Upon completion of all transfers set forth in Subsection B above, the remainder of the judgment is suspended, subject to the Subsections below.

D. The Commission's agreement to the suspension of part of the judgment is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendants' sworn financial statements and related documents (collectively, "financial representations") submitted to the Commission:

1. the Financial Statement of Defendant Elite Customer Services, LLC, signed by Deborah Rando on May 26, 2022, including the attachments and other submitted Documents;

2. the Financial Statement of Defendant Resource Management Investments, LLC, signed by Deborah Rando on May 26, 2022, including the attachments and other submitted Documents;

E. The suspension of the judgment will be lifted as to any Defendant if, upon motion by the Commission, the Court finds that any Defendant failed to disclose any material Asset, materially misstated the value of any Asset, or made any other material misstatement or omission in Defendants' financial representations identified above.

F. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due as to that Defendant in the amount specified in Subsection A above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents the consumer injury alleged in the Complaint), less any payment previously made pursuant to this Section, plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order.

V. ADDITIONAL MONETARY PROVISIONS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. Defendants relinquish dominion and all legal and equitable right, title, and interest in all Assets transferred pursuant to this Order identified in Section IV.B of this Order and may not seek the return of any of those Assets.

B. The Receiver shall liquidate all Assets transferred to the Receiver pursuant to this Order. After payment to the Receiver of any expenses approved by the Court, all proceeds from the liquidation of those Assets shall be paid to the Commission. The Receiver is excused from the requirements of 28 U.S.C. sections 2001 and 2004 in connection with any pending or contemplated sale by the Receiver.

C. Any entity or person, including Defendants or any financial institution holding Defendants' Assets, must transfer those Assets to the Commission or Receiver, in accordance with instructions provided by a representative of the Commission or Receiver, within seven days of receiving notice of this Order.

D. Once all of Defendants' Assets are transferred in accordance with Subsection IV.B, the Asset freeze instituted by the Temporary Restraining Order (Doc. 12) and the Stipulated Preliminary Injunction (Doc. 101) shall dissolve with respect to Defendants.

E. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the Commission, including in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

F. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Commission pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

G. Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer Identification Numbers or Employer Identification Numbers, which Defendants must submit to the Commission, may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701.

H. All money received by the Commission pursuant to this Order may be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its designee to be used for consumer relief, such as redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the Commission decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after such redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining money for such related relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any money not used for relief is to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants have no right to challenge any actions the Commission or its representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.

VI. CUSTOMER INFORMATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, Defendants' officers, agents, employees, and attorneys, and all other Persons in active concert or participation with any of them who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, are permanently restrained and enjoined from directly or indirectly:

A. Failing to provide sufficient customer information to enable the Commission to efficiently administer consumer redress. If a representative of the Commission requests in writing any information related to redress, Defendants must provide it, in the form prescribed by the Commission, within 14 days.

B. Disclosing, using, or benefitting from customer information, including the name, address, telephone number, email address, social security number, other identifying information, or any data that enables access to a customer's account (including a credit card, bank account, or other financial account), that any Defendant obtained prior to entry of this Order in connection with the sale of Credit Repair Services, Business Opportunities, or Investment Opportunities; and

C. Failing to destroy such customer information in all forms in their possession, custody, or control within 30 days after receipt of written direction to do so from a representative of the Commission.

Provided, however, that customer information need not be disposed of, and may be disclosed, to the extent requested by a government agency or required by law, regulation, or court order.

VII. COOPERATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants must fully cooperate with representatives of the Commission in this case and in any investigation related to or associated with the transactions or the occurrences that are the subject of the Complaint. Defendants must provide truthful and complete information, evidence, and testimony. Such Defendants must cause Defendants' officers, employees, representatives, or agents to appear for interviews, discovery, hearings, trials, and any other proceedings that a Commission representative may reasonably request upon 5 days written notice, or other reasonable notice, at such places and times as a Commission representative may designate, without the service of a subpoena.

VIII. RECEIVERSHIP

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Maria M. Yip is hereby appointed equity Receiver for the Defendants for the purpose of taking the necessary steps to wind up the businesses of the Defendants, liquidate Assets, and pay any net proceeds to the Commission to satisfy the monetary judgment in this Order. In carrying out these duties, the Receiver shall be the agent of this Court, shall be accountable directly to this Court, and is authorized and directed to:

- A. Take any and all steps that the Receiver concludes are appropriate to wind down the affairs of the Defendants.
- B. Continue to exercise full control over the Defendants and continue to collect, marshal, and take custody, control, and possession of all the funds, property, premises, accounts, documents, mail, and other Assets of, or in the possession or under the control of the Defendants, wherever situated, the income and profits therefrom, and all sums of money now or hereafter due or owing to the Defendants.
- C. Continue to have full control over the management and personnel of the Defendants.

D. Take all steps necessary or advisable, including issuing subpoenas, to locate and liquidate all other Assets of the Defendants, cancel the Defendants' contracts, collect on amounts owed to the Defendants, and take such other steps as may be necessary to wind-up the Defendants efficiently.

E. As soon as practicable after the entry of this Order, take exclusive custody, control, and possession of all Assets identified in Section IV.B of this Order, to the extent not already completed.

F. Give reasonable notice to the Commission of any settlements or compromises by the Receiver concerning the Receivership Estate, before the settlement or compromise is consummated. Within 20 days of this notice, the Commission shall have the opportunity to object to any such settlement, by filing a motion with the Court.

G. Make payments and disbursements from the Receivership Estate that are necessary or advisable for carrying out the directions of, or exercising the authority granted by, this Order. The Receiver shall apply to the Court for prior approval of any payment of any debt or obligation incurred by the Defendants prior to the date of entry of the Temporary Restraining Order in this action, except payments that the Receiver deems necessary or advisable to ensure Assets of the Defendants are not lost, stolen, or dissipated.

H. Institute actions or proceedings in state, federal, or foreign courts as the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to preserve or recover the Assets of the Defendants, or that the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to carry out the Receiver's mandate under this Order, including actions challenging fraudulent or voidable transfers.

- I. Defend any or all actions or proceedings instituted against the Defendants, as the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to preserve the Assets of the Defendants.
- J. Continue to maintain accurate records of all receipts and expenditures incurred as the Receiver.
- K. Perform all acts necessary or advisable to complete an accurate accounting of Assets of the Receivership Estate, and prevent unauthorized transfer, withdrawal, or misapplication of said Assets.
- L. Continue to be entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of the Receiver's duties pursuant to this Order, including duties performed by the Receiver's agents, including accountants and lawyers, and for the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them, from the Assets of the Receivership Estate, at the hourly rate previously agreed to by the Receiver and used as the bases for prior fee applications approved by the Court.
- M. Prepare and file, within 120 days of entry of this Order, a written report describing (1) the steps taken to implement the terms of this Order; (2) the value of all Assets and liabilities of the Receivership Estate; (3) whether there exists a need for the Receivership to continue; and (4) any other matters which the Receiver believes should be brought to the Court's attention.
